

Marietta Branch Friends of the Library

617 Fifth Street Marietta, OH

The Friends of the Library's (FOL) mission is "to focus public attention on library services, facilities, and needs; to assist the library Board and staff in developing and sponsoring programs of educational, cultural, or recreational value for Friends and the community at large; and to develop fundraising projects for the library....."

How Can I Help?

Join the FOL. We offer single, family, individual-for-life, and student memberships. Donate your books & DVDs for book sales. Volunteer to help prepare for and work at book sales and at special library events. Spread the Word by telling your friends and encouraging them to join the FOL.

How is the Money Used?

Although independent of the library, the FOL communicates with library staff to pinpoint needs. In the recent past, the FOL has provided funds for the Summer Reading Program, the Dolly Parton Imagination Library, a charitable fund at the Marietta Community Foundation, and purchased outdoor benches.
